

Since 1982

Since 2001, Sipar has been supporting the Cambodian publishing sector by offering children, teachers, educators and the general public a wide variety of quality books based on their needs and tastes. We publish original and quality fiction and non-fiction works in the Khmer language, particularly for children and teenagers, to make reading entertaining and help them on their path towards knowledge.

Our Publishing team is active and well trained by international publishing specialists, and is working on all book production process – testing topics, editorial conception, text writing, text translation, correction, layout, publishing promotion and distribution.
